

Metropolitan Youth Orchestra of Hong Kong

Founded in 2003, Metropolitan Youth Orchestra of Hong Kong (MYO) is a registered charity and one of the finest youth orchestras in Asia. Under the leadership of Synthia Ko, our artistic director and chief conductor, together with our junior orchestra conductor, Chris Cheung; MYO consists of 6 orchestras in 4 levels with over 300 young musicians. MYO brings excellent music performances with world's finest musicians and conducts numerous flash mob performance around Hong Kong, winning its international recognition.

Music Excellence with A Soul has always been MYO's motto. MYO strives to explore the limitless possibilities and serve our community through music. Besides working with world's finest musicians and conductors, the orchestra has shared stage with inspiring musical figures including 4-finger pianist Lee Hee-Ah (Korea), limbless life warrior Nick Vujicic, one-handed violinist Adrian Anantawan (Canada), Watoto Choir (Uganda), and Felix Klieser (Germany).

MYO has a long tradition of going overseas for music training, performance and exchange every summer since 2005. As of today, the tour footprints area found over 14 cities around the world.
